On the Subject of Cursor Maze

Just be glad your not getting jumpscared.

This module has a maze on a black blackground with a green square on one end and a red square on the other.

To solve this module, navigate your cursor from the green square to the red square without touching the walls.

Upon deselecting the module or touching a wall after starting on the green square a sound will play to indicate you need to start over.